Emergency Action Plan

EMERGENCY ACTION PLAN

Note: When working at an other contractor's facility, our company would fall under the provisions of their emergency action plan and a copy of their plan would be posted at our job site.

Events may occur which dictate the evacuation of the facility such as fire, severe inclement weather, power failure, etc.. Additionally events may occur which dictate the need for emergency medical responders. These sets of events fall under our Emergency Action Plan and a multitude of objectives must be met.

The first and foremost objective is the safety of all our personnel. To achieve this level of safety, our plan is designed to get personnel away from danger, treat injury, and provide for a thorough and accurate accounting of all employees.

There may well be situations where certain employees, trained in first aid and/or fire fighting procedures, may prevent a small emergency situation from becoming a major disaster. In these types of situations, these employees, identified in this plan, will remain on the job site to perform the function for which they are trained provided they may perform these duties, in their judgment, in a safe manner. At no time will any employee put himself/herself at risk.

All personnel will receive training on our emergency action plan during initial safety training as well as when our plan changes or the employee's responsibilities change.

A copy of this plan will be posted at the job site and, like all safety materials, is readily available for review. Because all personnel have received training in this plan and because it is posted on the job site, it will not be communicated orally regardless of the number of employee present.

If appropriate, on a job site, this emergency action plan will posted with our emergency escape route diagram and emergency telephone numbers.

When working at a client's facility, our personnel will fall under the provisions of their emergency action plan.

All exits will be identified with a sign having the word "EXIT" plainly legible. Exit signs will be suitably illuminated. Doors, passageways, stairs, etc., which appear to be an exit but are not shall be identified by a sign that reads, for example: "Not an Exit".

Aisles and passageways shall be kept clear to provide a direct, easy egress from our facility.

It is important that the actual implementation of this plan be simple, direct, and carried out without confusion. Each employee must know how to alert others, how to call for assistance, the location of fire extinguishers, the escape route, the rendezvous point & procedures to account for employees so that others do not put themselves at risk looking for a person who has already reached safety), and specific tasks that may be required of specific personnel during emergency procedures.

A copy of 29 CFR 1926.35, Employee Emergency Action Plans is readily available for review in our Safety Program.

Additionally, any employee who needs or wants more information on our Emergency Action Plan or their specific duties may contact the below person:

Program Administrator: Robert Evans

Additionally, certain persons will be given additional training in the safe and orderly evacuations of other employees. These persons will be essentially "competent persons" as their duties relate to the emergency action plan.

All employees must know how to safely get away from danger and to be properly accounted for.
